Armstrong congratulates Cookstown's Burnavon Arts & Cultural Centre on its Tenth Anniversary

Mid-Ulster MLA Billy Armstrong has congratulated the Burnavon Arts & Cultural Centre on reaching its tenth anniversary.

The Ulster Unionist representative said;

“The Burnavon has become well-established as a venue for the arts in Cookstown, the only one of its kind in the area. Over the past ten years it has provided a venue for plays, musicals, festivals, exhibitions and Conferences which has been a real asset to both Cookstown and the wider Mid-Ulster area.

Both locals people and tourists from home and abroad, have been through the doors in their thousands and its success is testament both to the foresight of bodies such as Cookstown Council who fought to establish such a centre in the District, and to the hard work and dedication of the Staff.

Having enjoyed great success in the past ten years I take great pleasure in wishing the Burnavon and its staff continued success for the next decade.”
